

Resolution No. 2007-03

THE CITY OF TATUM FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

Texas House Bill 1 (2006) requires that Tatum Independent School District hold its elections concurrent with the election for members of the governing body in the local municipality, the City of Tatum, Texas. HB 1 further requires that the voters of a joint election be served by common polling places.

THE CITY OF TATUM HEREBY RESOLVES:

As chief elections officer of The City of Tatum, the responsible officer shall provide a common polling place with the Tatum Independent School District for the general election day. The polling place will be the site known as the Rusk County Tatum Library. Early voting is not affected by the resolution and will continue to be held at the city's administrative offices.

PASSED BY VOTE AND APPROVED THIS 12th DAY OF February, 2007.

Phil Cory, Mayor

ATTEST:

Shelly Williams, City Secretary
